To,

The Hon'ble Chief Justice,
Delhi High Court,
Shershah Road,
New Delhi – 110003.

Subject: Issue of shifting of New Delhi District Courts from Patiala House to Rouse Avenue, Delhi.

Hon'ble Madam,

The Government of NCT of Delhi has been receiving numerous representations from New Delhi Bar Association and also from some individual lawyers giving various reasons for not shifting the New Delhi District Courts from Patiala House to Rouse Avenue, New Delhi.

These representations contain various aspects and reasons, which seem to be quite reasonable to the Government of NCT of Delhi, for not shifting New Delhi District Courts from Patiala House to Rouse Avenue. The said representations are annexed herewith for your kind perusal and are self-explanatory.

Based on the facts and information provided to me, it may not be reasonable to shift the New Delhi District Courts from Patiala House to Rouse Avenue, as the same may cause inconvenience to litigants, lawyers and even the Judicial Officers. We, therefore, have no objection if the premises at Rouse Avenue can be utilised by your good offices for some other purpose and the New Delhi District Courts keep functioning from Patiala House Courts only.

We feel that it would be reasonable to call a meeting of all stake holders including Ministry of Urban Development, Ministry of Law and Justice; Government of India, Ministry of Law and Justice; NCT of Delhi, concerned Bar Associations, District Judges, New Delhi, in presence of members of the Committee of High Court Judges and your good offices to decide all the issues once for all.

Thanking you,

With Regards,

(Manish Sisodia)
