2. If any Member feels that some more chamber allotments apart from the 38 Chambers, has been done without following due process and has been ignored to sent notices, then kindly convey the same with proper reasons in a written complaint at the Bar Office or drop it in the suggestion box.
3. Members/Neighbours are requested to inform the Bar Office regarding the vacant Chambers/Seats which have been lying vacant for a very long time/not occupied/continuously kept under lock, so that, Chambers/sitting space can be made available to the needy Members as per the eligibility criteria.
4. Kindly send your suggestions for framing the rules regarding the allotment of Chambers, to the Bar office or drop it in the Suggestion Box.
5. Members can openly come up without hiding their identity regarding complaints against allotment of Chambers and suggestions regarding allotments.
6. It is further informed that rules for allotment of Chambers/seats will be drafted and finalized at the earliest and then the process of allotment of Chambers/seats which were handed over/in the possession of NDBA will be initiated in a transparent manner.
7. Kindly note that the chambers which are surrendered will be in the possession of NDBA and not to be handed over to District Court Authorities or the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi. Do not believe in any rumor in this regard and the Chambers will be allotted as soon as possible as per the eligibility criteria

Your suggestions will be highly appreciated in this regard.
